Take A Step Up In Your Career

We'll help you advance in the military and in the real world

Ashworth University is dedicated to furthering the education of America's armed forces. Whether you are looking to move up within the ranks while in uniform or set a path for success in a civilian career, Ashworth University is here to provide you with the skills to fulfill your dreams.

Unlimited career potential. Combine your military background and experience with one of our professional-level programs and you'll be ready to achieve success.

You'll benefit from a practical education that teaches hands-on know-how for immediate use on the job. Ashworth has an educational program to fit your individual needs at any stage of your career.

Start, stop, review and restart as it suits your schedule. Attack your studies on your own terms. Proceed as quickly or as slowly as you want to fully grasp the subject matter. And you have your choice of online or correspondence study.

Earn better pay, get promoted or start your own business. Our graduates are often recruited by top employers. Others start home-based businesses or become self-employed entrepreneurs. With your degree or diploma in hand you'll have a winning strategy for success.

At Ashworth University, you don't have to put your future on hold. Call or visit our website and get your career moving today.

Get A Great Education On Your Schedule

Study while you serve – whenever and wherever you want

There's no reason to wait until you get out of the service to further your education. Our extreme flexibility gives you the opportunity to work toward your degree or career diploma while you are enlisted.

Convenient and self-paced. Are you a veteran? Currently deployed? On reserve duty? Stationed in the U.S.? Not sure if you'll be transferred or reassigned on a moment's notice? No problem! You can take your Ashworth education with you.

There are no deadline pressures. You complete your assignments and turn in your exams online where and when you're ready. It's all done at your own convenience.

Tuition can be virtually free. If you or a family member have served in the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard or National Guard, you may be eligible to earn your career diploma or degree from Ashworth University with little or no out-of-pocket expenses.
